GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

ASTORIA DINNER ATTENDED BY MANY NOTED TURFMEN.

Becken Wins More Than $7,000 and a $300 Cup for F. R. Hitchcock, the Host-Jesse Lewisohn a Rig Winner on the Season So Far-Betting Incidents.

In accordance with an unwritten condition of the Astoria Stakes, run at Gravesend resterday, F. R. Hitchcock, the owner of the filly, Beckon, gave a dinner at the Walderf-Asteria last night to the various subscribers to the stakes and other prominent men in Jockey Club affairs. Among the invited guests were H. K. Knapp, Andrew Miller, P. H. McCarren, R. T. Wilson, Jr., G. Cxnard, W. S. Fanshawe, Woodford Clay, H. B. Duryea, P. J. Dwyer, Blair Painter, Hitchcock, Jr., J. H. Bradford, James R. Keene, H. P. Whitney and many others. additions of the stakes provided that subthers should name two fillies by May 1, at that only one should start, and that the starting under a subscription must be owned by the subscriber from the time of entry until after the race. Beckon was bred by John E. Madden and ran in his colors at nnings. But before the entries closed was purchased by Mr. Hitchcock, although Madden remained her trainer.

It was known early in the day that barring cidents Beckon could not lose this race. that when the layers began by quoting her at 8 to 5 there was a mighty plunge on the part of the wise men and the public until the daughter of Plaudit closed at even money. Meanwhile the Millerites backed Woodford clay's Flower Queen, a filly by Nasturtium-Grievance, from 5 down to 4, while the Oneck Stable's Una, by Griffon—Fairie Queen, was lowered to 7. All of the other starters entup in the betting, but there was a liberal show play on Clara J., a full sister to Waterog. also on J. G. Oxnard's Belphosbe and B. Duryea's Whip Top. Beckon's share of stakes was $7,375, while Mr. Hitchcock also received a $500 silver cup. The Astoria sas first run in 1902, the previous winners being J. G. Follansbee's Astarita, P. H. Mcarren's Ocean Tide, Pierre Lorillard's Chrysis, S. S. Brown's Sue Smith and the Oneck Stable's Hyperbole.
While the ring lost big money on Beckor he books cleaned up a small fortune on the cteat of Running Water, in the handicap at mile and a sixteenth. Running Water was etting her final "prep" for the Suburban and was said that she was in superb condition Accordingly the heavy bettors unloaded and the was pounded down from 4 to 5 to 7 to 10. Mr Keene's Cabochon, with Beckman up, was entirely overlooked, although he figured to have a chance. He went up in the betting from 10 to 20 and won so impressively that the crowd felt sorry that they had allowed the Keene colt to run unsupported. The chwartz brothers were on hand to back Penarris, a three-year-old Garry Hermann colt and they sent their checks to the ring liberality, taking 5 to 1. But Penarri did not get away from the post and Preston when he got the colt under way took the over-land route into the backstretch. After that Penarris never had a chance to improve his after the first race had been cut to pieces.

tady Amelia was left in and was a 3 to 5 favorite at the opening. But strange to say the smart fellows, not the public, did not care for her at all, so that she went back to even money and 6 to 5. The smart play was on Mr. Keene' Grimaldi, who was in receipt of thirty pounds from Lady Amelia, and who, with Miller up, was backed down to 3. Barring a light play on Zal, place and third, the other starters sttracted little or no support. Lady Amelia made a sorry showing. There was just a fash of her old speed as she led Grimaldi to he head of the stretch, where the strain told and she blew up. The ring got a pretty solid drubbing on the result, which, by the way, was the closest finish of the day.

With six starters in the steeplechase, all but five were well backed, J. W. Colt's Dulcian eing a slight favorite over the others at 3. he Westerners cleaned up handsomely on heriff Williams as they took him both ways. But on the whole the bookmakers were nearly all winners to the race.

When Boots Durnell scratched Temaced out of the fifth race and E. Dugan, his jockey, accepted the mount on Tipping it was the ignal for a solid plunge on the latter, who as backed off the boards at the last moment. doping has usually won her races from ind, so that when Dugan took her to the front to make the pace there was a general fear that she could not remain there. This apprehension became a fact when Lord Stanord Stanhope, by the way, was one Bob Smith's periodical good things. Smith passed the word that the horse was "ready" and his turf associates lost no time in back-ing him from 20 down to 10. It was a mild sert of a killing and helped to eat up some of the layers' winnings on Tipping. The Millerites made Master of Craft a steady erond choice at 13 to 5, taken both ways, out the horse, not the lockey, was at fault. show play all over the ring and made good. When the betting on the last race began there was a universal demand for Oscar lewisphn's colt Monopolist. The crowd sobbled up 8 to 5 with much eagerness, but when the play on Scallop began to show in the betting pavilion Monopolist went back to 9 to 5. Scallop was heavily backed for the place, while Hollister carried a bunch of show wagers. As the first three horses ran as they were played the ring paid out s substantial sum. lesse Lewisohn won abundle on Monopolist.

In fact it is an every day proceeding for Lewisohn to beat the bookies. Two years ago he dropped nearly $200,000 on the horses and went to Europe, but he came back in the spring to try it all over again. He had only a fair year last season, but since the present campaign opened he has had remarkable success. It is estimated by com-potent judges of ring affairs that Lewisohn to date is $100,000 ahead of the game. He has the best of information and backs horses at all sorts of prices. In addition to playing Monopolist yesterday he is said to have backed Grimaldi, Sheriff Williams, Beckon and Lord Stanhope, cleaning up a sum that ran into five figures. It is generally conceded that few good things go over the plate that are not supported by the young mill-

As THE SUN outlined last week, H. P. Whit ney's Burgomaster has been declared from the Suburban Handicap and all his other stake engagements. Burgomaster will sent to Brookdale to be bred to some of Mr. hitney's choicest mares.

The Suburban, which will be run on Thursday, was widely discussed at the track yesterday. It is the prevailing opinion that a threerear-old will be the victor. Electioneer, Veil, Superman and Montgomery, all of this age, are in much favor at present. If Peter Pan were eligible he would probably rule the favorite, so that it is believed in some quarters hat either Veil, Mr. Keene's widely touted Disguise filly, or Electioneer will be the pub-le's choice when the speculation on the big race begins. No less than twenty starters will go to the post, it is said, if the weather s pleasant and the track fast.

Ed Tyler, who holds the slate for brother, the Humming Bird, in the big ing, was in receipt of much praise yesterday a bit of heroism which he displayed on Similary at Sheepshead Bay. Col. Tyler was watching some boys in swimming when one of them, Otto Rosenberg, 12 years old, became helpless. He cried for help as he floundered shout in the water, but nebody seemed inchined to go to his assistance. But the Colonel pulled off his cost, jumped into the water and esterday that the rescue was all the more nel was weighted down with his brother's

BECKON'S ASTORIA STAKES

F. R. HITCHCOCK'S FILLY, HEAV. ILY BACKED, BREEZES HOME.

James R. Keene Takes Two Handleans With Grimaidi and Cabochon-Lord Stanhope Scores at Long Odds -- Monop olist Graduates-Four Favorites Lose

F. R. Hitchcock's Beckon, a filly by Plaudit Semaphore, was an easy winner of the Astoria Dinner Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs, at Gravesend yesterday. Beckon was a hot favorite, backed down to even money. She did not break any too well, but George Mountain, gradually worked way up to Senator McCarren's Clara J., 12 to 1, the pacemaker, until the stretch was reached, where Beckon went to the front with rush and breezed home three lengths to the good in 1:01 4-5. Clara J. was a head in front of H. B. Duryea's Whip Top, 15 to 1, with Woodford Clay's Flower Queen, backed down to 4, a length back James R. Keene won both of the handicaps. Grimaldi, backed down to 3, ran Lady Amelia, the top weight and even money favorite, off her feet in the first event, a handicap at about six furlongs, and then stood a drive from Miller to win by three parts of a length from H. B. Duryea's Ben Ban, 15 to 1. The latter had a short head over William Gerst's Zal, 7 to 1, who had the same margin over Red River, 15 to 1. Lady Amelia, who made her first appearance of the season, was not ready, from the way she finished, as Notter eased her up in the run home. The time was 1:10. Mr. Keene's Cabochon, another good threeyear-old, neglected at 20 to 1, made all the pace in the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth. He was well handled by Beckman and won in a was well handled by Beckman and won in a romp by four, lengths from the Newcastle Stable's Running Water, 7 to 10, in 1:48 2-5. The latter was under a sharp drive to keep the place from August Belmont's Don Enrique, 40 to 1, by a neck. Bad News was close up. Penarris, 5 to 1, was poorly ridden by Preston. The steeplechase, at about two miles and a haif, went to Barney Schreiber's Sheriff Williams, 4 to 1, who won ridden out by a couple of lengths from J. E. Widener's Reaim, 13 to 1. If the latter had not run out after taking the last jump he might have won. Dulcian, 3 to 1 favorite, was third, badly beaten. Oro, well backed at 5 to 1, was not only left at the post but also refused the first jump. Buckman, another well supported choice, fell. The time was 4:55 2-5.

After making the pace for a mile in the fifth event, for platers, at a nile and a quarter, Tipping, 7 to 5 favorite, gave way to Lord Stanhope, backed down to 10, at the head of the stretch, the latter winning in a gallop in 2:07. Tipping had a mortgage on the place, with Banker, 10 to 1, third, after a slow beginning. Master of Craft, 13 to 5, stopped at the end of a mile.

SHIFTING CORNELL OARSMEN. Courtney Not Satisfied With Work of His

Crews-Practice on the Hudson. POUGHEEPSIE, N. Y., June 17,-The most nportant development in the rowing work of the college crews to-day was a marked change in the makeup of the Cornell varsity sight and varsity four. Coming as it does only nine days before the regatta it tells the predicament in which the Ithaca oarsmen are better than anything else could. Coach Courtney was so disgusted with the result of the two mile scrap between the varsity and oarsmen came down to the boathouse he announced a new order for the varsity combinations. He took Piollet from 3 in the varsity eight and Seymour from 5 in the same shell and replaced them with Bromley, bow of the four, and Gavett, 3 in the four, respec-

Seymour went to seat 3 in the four, while bination, taking the place of Welsh, who was sent into bow in the four. That is the seat that Welsh had last year. In this order the crews rowed down over the course in the morning. They did not do appreciably better, but Courtney had no idea that they would show marked improvement at once. In the afternoon Coach Courtney made the further chance of sending Newman from bow in the varsity to seat 3, trading seats with Rromley.

further chance of sending Newman from bow in the varsity to seat 3, trading seats with Bromley.

The Columbia varsity crew went down over the course from a point a half mile or so above Krum Elbow to the bridge this morning, the freshmen crew going along to make a scrap of it. When the men got back there was a general feeling that the crew had not done well and Rice had something to say to several of the men. Jack Ryan was able to go out in the second varsity, which he stroked. In the afternoon the Columbia crews like the others were taken down the river close to the west shore.

In a four mile row this morning the Navy crew got away from the start, going thirty-six strokes to the minute and held that rate all the way down the course. Passing the Columbia boathouse they were holding it up and some of the oarsmen said that they could hear the steady crash of the slides as they hit the front of the run. The midshipmen certainly rush their slides. When they came under the bridge they still were hitting it up to thirty-six strokes to the minute. They were timed from the Syracuse boathouse the last half minute of their journey twenty-two strokes, which means forty-four to the minute.

The Pennsylvania crew had a time row this morning. The Quaker varsity orew showed ragged form, especially in the last mile. The men did not handle their slides well when they got trying hard, and they tired greatly toward the finish.

ragged form, especially in the last mile. The men did not handle their sildes well when they got trying hard, and they tired greatly toward the finish.

The Wisconsin crews had a hard row over the course this morning, which Ed Ten Eyck said was not a time trial. In the afternoon they went along the west shore for a short distance and then came back hard from the finish line up to their boathouse.

The Syracuse varsity crew, which is beginning to be stronger in public favor, was sent over the course, too, very hard this morning. There was still some lack of unison in stroking. However, the boat ran well between strokes. In the afternoon the Syracuse crews were off down the river with the rest.

Georgetown worked hard both morning and evening. Coach Russell is still bothered by the fact that one side of his boat is stronger than the other and the boat does not ride evenly for that reason.

MORE MUMPS IN HARVARD CAMP, Buxton of the Freshman Eight Ill-Light Practice of Crews.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 17.-Phillip Buxton, rowing 4 in the Harvard freshman eight, is the second oarsman attacked with numps since the crews arrived from Cammumps since the crews arrived from Cambridge. Buxton's place has been filled by Vogel and the crew is now in a very unsettled condition. Wyman, at 5, who was forced to leave the shell on account of the same disease, returned from Memorial Hospital to-day in the launch and looks rather peaked. The chances are slim for him making the freshman boat again. Buxton is quarantined fon the bluff in the cottage occupied by Wyman before he was sent to the hospital, and it will depend upon his condition whether he will remain at quarters or also be sent to the New London Hospital.

Harvard and Yale alike had light practice on the upper half of the course to-day. The Crimson eights had a mile brush this evening and the varsity men had to hit up their stroke at the finish to win out beating the youngsters by only a boat length. The conference of Capts, Ide and Bacon held Saturday evening will probably result in the changing of the course a few feet to the westward above the naval station. This section of the river has always been a bone of centention owing to alleged eel grass growing along the east bank, and the change will be made to give both Harvard and Yale a clear course regardless of which one wins the toss.

Cambridge Freebooters Win at Polo. HAMILTON, Mass., June 17.-The first polo game of the season here was played to-day on the Myopia grounds between the Cambridge Freebooters, made up of Harvard men, and the New Haven team, composed of Yale men. From start to finish the game was exciting and ended in the score of 10% to 3% in favor of the Freebooters.

New Yorks Capture Lively Game After Score Is Twice Tied-Detroits Land a Close Contest, and Browns and Bostons Divide-Philadelphias Down Clevelands.

The New York Americans defeated the hicagos again yesterday, making two out of three from the world's champions. The game lasted eleven innings. The Detroits beat the Washingtons in a ten inning game. There was an even break in a double header between Boston and St. Louis, while the Cleve-lands were defeated in Philadelphia. Joe Doyle, Willie Keeler and Kid Elberfeld put their heads together at American League Park yesterday afternoon and from their triple thought works was evolved a scheme to beat the White Sox. This was in the eleventh inning of a game that had been a ripsnorter all through. The tripartite agreement entered into by Joe, Willie and the Kid was simple but effective. Doyle began the New York half of the inning by piling a two bagger to the left field fence. Keeler walked. The fourth ball hit him, so he was doubly entitled to his base. Elberfeld capped the conspiracy with success by jamming a single through the infield on which Brockett, running for Doyle, dusted home with the winning run.

ming for Doyle, dusted home with the winning run.

The New Yorks would have beaten the Chicagos earlier but for errors behind Chesbro. Chesbro pitched in first class style. He was efficient with men on bases and had a good and well controlled assortment of shoots. He got out of the game in the eighth inning to make way for a hitter. Doyle then fell heir to the mound ministrations and finished out the game in able fashion.

Elberfeld's ranginess in getting in front of ground hits was identified with two putouts in the first inning. In New York's half Chase singled, reached third by fine running, when Hahn booted the ball and was left there. The Sox bunched a couple of hits in the second inning. Davis hit to centre and Dougherty hit to the right of second base. Moriarity checked the ball and threw out Davis, who tried to take third on the hit.

The New Yorks made a run in the third and had a good chance to make more. Kleinow singled, Chesbro whiffed and Keeler singled the hit.

The New Yorks made a run in the third and had a good chance to make more. Kleinow singled, Chesbro whiffed and Keeler singled to left. Elberfeld pushed a single to centre and scored Kleinow. Elberfeld beat it down to second on Rohe's miss of a throw to catch Keeler napping. A double squeeze was tried, and Chase hit the ball, but he pounded it to Dougherty, and Keeler and Elberfeld had to return to their bases. Laporte's roller to Davis ended the inning.

Clever fielding by Conroy held Donohue's hit in the fourth to a single, and Jiggs was jugged stealing. Moriarity scored for New York in this inning on his own two bagger. Conroy's sacrifice and a wild pitch. With Smith on first in the sixth and nobody out Hahn banged a liner to Elberfeld, and Chase's deft pickup of Elberfeld's low throw doubled up Smith.

The seventh inning was full of excitement and heart throbs. Isbell's pop fly fell between Conroy and Elberfeld, the latter balking Conroy and not getting to the ball himself. Laporte made a beautiful stop of Donohue's lick but could not get the batter or man on first. Davis grounded to Moriarity, who ran Donohue back toward first but threw to Chase in time to retire Davis. Donohue had been shooed back so far that it was easy to head him off before he reached second. Dougherty walked, broke for second and Kleinow threw to Moriarity. The latter's short throw home was high, Isbell and Dougherty scoring.

Elberfeld's low throw, followed by hits by Jones and Isbell, gave the Chicagos a run and the lead in the eighth. The New Yorks field the score on hits by Conroy and Hoffman, Dougherty's bad handling of the latter's hit, a fielder's choice and Rickey's high bouncer to Isbell. Isbell made a witless move in throwing home too late when he could have caught Rickey at first.

Smith's service having been severely rumpled, he was succeeded by White in the ninth. caught Rickey at first.

New Yorks (N. L.), 9; CINCINNATI, 1.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—The New Yorks introduced themselves to Cincinnati fans today and by way of creating an impression drubbed the Red Sox by a 9 to 1 score. Mason, who pitched somewhat of a game against the New Yorks at the Polo Grounds last mouth, failed as a repeater and hits came in bunches after McGraw's men once got the proper gauge on him about the middle of the game. At any rate it would have required some pretty close pitching to have offset the brand that Ames was dispensing and the only run the Reds got was a present from Bresnahan, who heaved a bad one past Devlin in the fifth. For the first three innings the Reds looked the dangerous ones but failed to score from an assortment of chances. In the fourth an error and a single got two New Yorks to base, where they were left. The fifth was the awakening. McGann was passed and Dahlen's double, scored Dan Corcoran also got two bases to left, scoring Dahlen. Shannon's single, following Ames's sacrifice, helped Corcoranin. The Reds followed with their only run. Odwell singled to right, took second on Mason's walk and stole third, drawing a wild throw from Bresnahan. On the throw Oddie scored. Two passes, a three base wild throw by Mason on Dahlen's bunt and a long fly scored three more runs Ganzel squealed at a decision in the eighth and was benched. The score:
